This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 15th day of March, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, Betty L. Chase, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service made upon her in the County of Payette, State of Idaho, according to law, and that she has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit having been made showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon her, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in his complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about the 30th day of November, 1947, and ever since that date have been living and are now living separate and apart; that for a long time preceding said date of separation the defendant treated plaintiff in a cruel manner and caused him great mental suffering that when plaintiff was in the armed forces of his country and over-seas the defendant wrote him that she did not care for him any more and in effect that she was through with him, and since his return home she has made it clear to him that she does not now want anything to do with him, and that she is infatuated with another man, and has been going out with such other man continuously and has been and is being untrue to the plaintiff; that such actions on the part of the defendant has made life with the defendant now impossible; that none of the acts of the defendant toward the plaintiff were caused by any act or word of the plaintiff, and that he made an honest effort to make a success of the marriage; that there is no property of any kind or character belonging to said parties excepting certain household goods and equipment and which is not involved herein; that there is no child the issue of the marriage of said parties.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Floyd E. Chase, and the defendant, Betty L. Chase, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all of the obligations of said marriage, and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 12th day of March, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear, and it being shown to the Court that on the 11th day of March, 1948, there was filed herein defendant's affidavit admitting the receipt of a copy of the summons and complaint in this action; his refusal to plead to the complaint herein and consenting to his default for failure to plead being entered; and subjecting himself to the jurisdiction of this Court for all purposes connected with this action; it appearing further that on the 11th day of March, 1948, the default of the defendant for failure to plead was entered by the Clerk of this Court; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, it is ORDERED that said entry of default be and it is hereby approved and confirmed.

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 3rd day of April, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and the complaint on file herein as required by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear, answer, or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not now, and has not been for more than one year, in any branch of military service as contemplated and defined by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and toward the plaintiff as alleged in the complaint; and it further appearing to the Court that a fair and equitable settlement of the property rights of the parties hereto has been entered into by said parties, which is in words and figures as follows:

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court sitting without a jury, on the 29th day of April, 1948, on the complaint of plaintiff and the records and files in said action, Ralph R. Breshears, attorney at law of Boise, Idaho, appearing as attorney for said plaintiff, and the said defendant not appearing in person or by attorney or at all.

It appeared to the Court from the records and files in said action that the said defendant, Hubert Stanley Reed, had been duly and regularly served with summons in said action and that said defendant had not appeared in person or by attorney or at all in said action, nor answered or pleaded to the complaint on file therein within the time specified in said summons, or within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that such time has expired and default of the said defendant was thereupon duly entered by order of the Court for failure to so appear or plead.

Evidence was thereupon introduced in behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in said complaint, the testimony of said plaintiff being corroborated by the testimony of other witnesses, and the Court having heard the evidence and the proofs and duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that each and all the allegations contained in said complaint are true, and that that certain written agreement, dated April 27, 1948, and executed by the plaintiff as party of the first part and by the defendant as party of the second part, wherein and whereby the then existing and all future property rights of plaintiff and defendant were mutually settled, is just, reasonable and a fair and equitable settlement of the property rights of plaintiff and defendant. Whereupon it was ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant as prayed in said complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Ralph R. Breshears, attorney for said plaintiff, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Virginia Reed, and the defendant, Hubert Stanley Reed, be and they are hereby dissolved and set aside, and that the plaintiff and the said defendant shall be and they are hereby absolutely and finally divorced and freed of all obligations of their said marriage.

II

That that certain written agreement dated April 27, 1948, and executed by the plaintiff as party of the first part and by the defendant as party of the second part, wherein and whereby the then existing and all future property rights of plaintiff and defendant were mutually settled, a copy of which said agreement is attached hereto and hereby made a part of this decree by reference thereto, be and the same is hereby confirmed and approved.

III

That the care and custody of Raleigh Charles Reed, minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff during the minority of said child, reserving to the defendant herein the right to visit the said child in the custody of the plaintiff at reasonable times and places.

IV

That the defendant Hubert Stanley Reed shall pay to the plaintiff, Virginia Reed, the sum of $50.00 per month for the support, maintenance and education of Raleigh Charles Reed, minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, said payments to commence on April 27, 1948, and to continue until said child attains the age of majority or until the custody of the plaintiff is terminated, whichever event shall first occur.

That the defendant, Hubert Stanley Reed, shall pay to the plaintiff, Virginia Reed, one-half of the defendant's share of the income from the following described real property, to-wit:

An undivided one-fourth interest in Lot Eleven (11) Section Eighteen (18); and Lots Three (3), Six (6), and Nine (9), and the Southeast Quarter (SE¼) of the Northwest Quarter (NW¼), all in Section Nineteen (19), Township Two (2) North, Range Ten (10) East, B.M., in Elmore County, Idaho; said plaintiff to be paid one-half of said income forthwith as and when received by the defendant, and said payments of income to continue from April 27, 1948, until such time as said property may be sold by the defendant and his copartners; and in the event of the sale of said property the said defendant shall and hereby is directed and ordered to pay to the plaintiff one-half of the defendant's share of the proceeds from any such sale, said one-half interest to be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff forthwith upon the receipt thereof by the defendant from any purchaser.

Plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones and the defendant appearing neither in person nor by counsel, an absolute decree of divorce was granted at said time.

Since said time the attorneys for plaintiff have discovered that the publication of the alias summons in said case was defective in this, that the plaintiff was named as "Harry B. Roswick" instead of "Henry B. Roswick" and since said time defendant has been served with a new process in said action, said service being made by publication in the Pocatello Tribune, a daily newspaper, printed and published at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, and having a general circulation and being a legal newspaper under the laws of the State of Idaho; and it appearing to the court that the defendant has been duly served with summons and complaint in said action and has failed to appear, plead or otherwise answer the said complaint within the time provided by law or at all. Evidence was offered by the plaintiff for and in support of the allegations of his complaint in which it was proved that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and such are found to be the fact; and the court being fully advised in the premises,

DECREE

The above entitled matter came on for trial in Open Court at Sandpoint, Idaho, before the Honorable E. V. DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS CAUSE Came regularly on for hearing in the court room of the above entitled court, in the court house at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 15-24 day of April, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein, before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Lowe, one of her attorneys. The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by counsel. Thereupon, it appeared to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had executed and caused to be filed herein a duly verified instrument wherein and whereby he did acknowledge the receipt by him personally within the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, of a copy of the summons and complaint in said cause, and did waive his statutory time within which to plead to the said complaint and consent to the entry of his default for such failure to plead, and did consent to the submission of the said cause to the above entitled court without further notice to the defendant.

It further appeared to the satisfaction of the court that an affidavit in compliance with the terms and provisions of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, had been filed herein by the plaintiff, wherein it appears that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States or its allies, and has not been in such service for more than six months last past.

Thereupon, on motion of Kales E. Lowe, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his refusal to plead to the complaint of the plaintiff was by the court ordered entered. Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn in and examined, and the plaintiff rested. The court, being fully advised in the premises, having duly considered the matter, findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived as a matter of law by the defendant and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, orders that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed in her complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed:

I.

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Ilene Solosabal, and the defendant, Valentine Solosabal,

Jr., be and the same are hereby dissolved, annulled, and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby restored to the status of a single person, wholly discharged and released from any duties and obligations owed to the defendant on account of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant.

That there shall be, and is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Ilene Solosabal, the care, custody and control of Valentine Lester Solosabal and Zola M. Solosabal, the minor children, issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, subject to the right of the defendant to visit the said children at all reasonable times.

3.

That there is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property the chest of drawers, books, linens, dishes, cooking utensils, and two baby beds and bedding, the same heretofore being the community property of the plaintiff and defendant; and that all of the other community property of the plaintiff and defendant is hereby awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property.

That the defendant be, and he is hereby required and directed to pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the said minor children, issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month until the eldest of the said children shall have attained the age of 21 years or shall have married, and the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per month thereafter until the youngest of the said children shall have attained said age. The first such monthly payment to be paid to the plaintiff by the defendant on or before the first day of May, 1948, and a like payment to be made by the defendant on or before the first day of each and every calendar month thereafter until the eldest of said children shall have attained the age of 21 years or shall have married, and the sum of $25.00 to be paid on or before the first day of each and every month thereafter until the youngest of said children shall have attained the age of 21 years or shall have married.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court sitting without a jury on the 19 day of April, 1948, on the complaint of plaintiff, and the records and files in said action, Ralph R. Breshears, attorney at law, of Boise, Idaho, appearing as attorney for said plaintiff, and the said defendant not appearing in person or by attorney or at all.

It appearing to the Court from the records and files in said action that the said defendant, Rose L. Evidence was thereupon introduced in behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in said complaint, the testimony of said plaintiff being corroborated by the testimony of other witnesses, and the court having heard the evidence and the proofs and duly considered the same, and

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 21st day of April, 1948--the plaintiff being represented by his Attorney, J. M. Lampert, and the defendant being represented by her Attorney, J. L. Eberle.

The defendant having here-to-fore having filed demurrer to the complaint, the cause came on to be heard.

The plaintiff was granted leave to amend the complaint, as follows: In paragraph two, add in the second line in the blank space, "LaGrande, Oregon"; in paragraph five, the third subdivision, strike out the words "plaintiff is of a very quarrelsome disposition and insisted on going to night clubs", and insert in lieu thereof, the word "defendant"; and in the fifth subdivision of said paragraph B., strike out the date July 28, 1947 and insert in lieu thereof, "March 28, 1948".

To these amendments the defendant, through her Attorney consented, and the Court order such amendments to the complaint. The Attorney for defendant then withdrew the demurrer and refused to otherwise answer or plead to the complaint.

The evidence by the plaintiff was then presented to the Court, including the corroboration as to plaintiff's residence in the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks prior to the filing of the complaint herein.

The Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff, and that the allegations of the complaint as amended, are sustained by the evidence; and that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the filing of this action.

NOW THEREFORE, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, and the parties be, and hereby are restored to the status of single persons.

Done in open Court this 21st day of April, 1948.

ANTHONY J. HERBES, ) 13629

Plaintiff,

vs. ( DECREE

MARY E. HERBES,

Defendant. )

This action having come on regularly for hearing this day pursuant to an order of the Court entered herein which order is based upon a written stipulation signed by the attorneys of record for the respective parties, and filed herein, wherein it is stipulated that this cause may be heard and considered by the Court, upon its merits, this day.

The defendant and cross-complainant appeared in person and with her attorney of record, Wm. S. Hawkins, and the cross-defendant appeared by his attorneys of record, Elder & Elder and Sidney E. Smith.

Competent evidence was introduced on behalf of the defendant and cross-complainant herein under the defendant's cross-complaint, but the plaintiff and cross-defendant offered no evidence whatever in support of plaintiff's complaint. After considering the record and files in this cause and hearing and considering the evidence introduced on behalf of the cross-complainant the Court finds that this Court has jurisdiction of the parties to this action and has due jurisdiction to hear and consider this cause upon its merits at this time, and the Court further finds that the cross-complainant is entitled to a decree of divorce herein upon the ground of Wilful Desertion.

The Court further finds that the "Property Settlement Agreement" entered into and executed by the parties to this action and attached to the amended answer of the plaintiff to the defendant's cross-complaint and admitted in evidence in these proceedings as "Exhibit A", is a fair, just and equitable settlement between the parties to this action and the same should be approved and confirmed.

The Court further finds that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of the attorney for the cross-complainant,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the defendant, Mary E. Herbes, and the plaintiff, Anthony J. Herbes, be, and the same are hereby vacated, dissolved and set aside, and that the said defendant and cross-plaintiff, Mary E. Herbes, is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from said plaintiff and cross-defendant upon the ground of Wilful Desertion.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the "Property Settlement Agreement" on file herein and marked "Exhibit A" attached to the amended answer of the cross-defendant, be, and the same is hereby allowed, approved and settled, and the cross-defendant is awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor children, Robert Anthony Herbes and Marilyn Ann Herbes, subject only to the right of reasonable visitation by the plaintiff and cross-defendant.

IT IS FURTHER, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant and cross-plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded judgment against the plaintiff and cross-defendant for the sum of $50.00 per month to be paid commencing May 1, 1948, and a like sum on the first day of each and every month thereafter for the support and maintenance of the children of the parties above named until both children are twenty-one years of age.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person with her attorneys Whitla & Knudson, but that the defendant, although he has regularly filed herein his Answer and Stipulation and that a case might be set for trial at any time after April 20th, 1948 did not appear and was not represented. Without further notice and the defendant not appearing, the court proceeded with the hearing of the case.

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of law were waived and after hearing the evidence introduced the court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Victoria, B. D. in 1909 and ever since and now are husband and wife, and that two children were born of said marriage, both of whom are of age and that the parties have no community property and that the property standing in the name of the plaintiff is her separate property. The court further finds that the plaintiff has been a bonafide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action. That the defendant left the plaintiff and began to keep company with another woman and such conduct has continued for more than one year immediately preceeding the commencement of this action and that said conditions became known to plaintiff's friends and squaintences and thereby inflicted upon her great and grevious mental pain and suffering to such an extent that it was impossible for plaintiff and defendant to live together and by reason thereof, the defendant has been guilty of extreme curelty and plaintiff is entitled to a divorce herein on said ground. It is therefore ordered that the bounds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved, annuled and set aside and that the plaintiff JUNE R. STEIDEL ~~be~~ and she hereby is, granted a ~~decree~~ of absolute divorce from the defendant ALEXANDER FREDERICK STEIDEL on the gounds of cruelty

That the plaintiff and the defendant were intermarried on or about the 20th day of June, 1938, and ever since that date have been husband and wife.

That no issue was born of said marriage.

That the plaintiff and the defendant had accumulated community personal property, and that prior to the filing of this action the respective parties have heretofore agreed upon a division of the community property as follows:

The above entitled court of action came on for hearing before me in my chambers in the City of Burley, County of Cassia, State of Idaho, and within the Eleventh Judicial District. The plaintiff appeared in person and with his witnesses; the defendant appearing not, it appearing to the court from the records and files in said court that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint, and that the defendant has accepted service thereof, and the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered, and it further appearing to the court that it is a proper matter to be heard at chambers.

Whereupon, witnesses were called and sworn and testified under oath for and on behalf of the said plaintiff and against the defendant; and the court, after listening to said testimony free of all legal objections thereto, finds as follows;

That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action was an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

The court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 11th day of October, 1947, and now are and ever since that time have been husband and wife.

No issue has been born of said marriage.

The court finds that the plaintiff and defendant have not during said coveture acquired any community property.

The court further finds that the plaintiff was the owner and holder of certain real property prior to the time of said marriage and that said real property was the plaintiff's sole, separate, individual property and estate, and that the plaintiff was the owner and holder thereof as his sole, separate, individual property and estate. Said separate property and estate of the plaintiff being described as follows, to-wit: The Southwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter ($SW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Twenty-nine (29), Township Eight (8) South, Range Twenty-five (25) East Boise Meridian, Minidoka County, State of Idaho.

The court further finds that the said defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner; that immediately after said marriage the said defendant did inform the plaintiff that she did not love or care for him and refused at all times to reside with him as his wife or to show any love or affection to the said plaintiff or the normal services of the marital relationship and did refuse to reside with said plaintiff, all of which caused said plaintiff great mental anguish and physical suffering.

The court, after listening to the said testimony and after due consideration thereof, finds it is a proper matter for the entering of a decree of divorce in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

NOW THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony exsisting between the plaintiff, Hubert Seal, and the defendant, Ruth Seal, be dissolved and a decree of divorce is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, Hubert Seal, and against the defendant, Ruth Seal.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff, Hubert Seal, be and is hereby decreed to be the sole owner of as his separate property and estate the following described real property, to wit: The Southwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter ($SW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Twenty-Nine (29), Township Eight (8) South, Range Twenty-five (25) East Boise Meridian, Minidoka County, State of Idaho. And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, Ruth Seal, be and is hereby forever barred and foreclosed from claiming or claiming to assert, or any persons claiming under her from asserting or claiming to assert, any right title or interest to said real property; and the title to said real property be and is hereby quieted in the said plaintiff as his sole, separate, individual property and estate.

Mary Olive Young,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

Andrew Benjamin Young,

Defendant.

Action No. 2550.

Filed and entered April 19,1948 Lillian Wilson, Clerk

- - - - - - - - - - - - - -

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 19th day of April, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, Andrew Benjamin Young, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service made upon him in the State of Oregon, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon the defendant, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about the 16th day of December, 1946, and ever since said date have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant treated the plaintiff in such a cruel manner that it made continued life with him impossible to plaintiff and caused her great mental suffering, humiliation and shame; that the defendant forced plaintiff to live a very insecure existence with him, and she had to and did work for other people almost all of the time to secure funds to provide herself the common necessaries of life; that he would not hold a job and would drift from job to job and from place to place; that the defendant was always abusive in his talk to plaintiff, using vile and indecent language toward her and toward others in her presence; that he was continually going places with other women, and particularly with a certain woman, and that there were definite intimate relationships between the defendant and with such other woman, which relationship has continued and is now continuing, and that a child has been born to the defendant and to such other woman; that the defendant has struck the plaintiff and at one time broke her jaw, and that his treatment of her was such that she became and is now fearful of him; that none of such acts on the part of the defendant toward plaintiff were caused by any word or act of the plaintiff; that plaintiff conducted herself toward the defendant as a wife should conduct herself toward her husband; that such acts were calculated by the defendant to cause plaintiff mental and physical suffering and pain, and did so; that there is no property of any kind or character belonging to the parties hereto exceptin an automobile which the defendant has in his possession in the State of Oregon; that there was one child born as the issue of said marriage,- Edward Milton Young, a son, now less than two years of age, and which said child the plaintiff had with her and under her control at the time of the commencement of this action and which she was caring for and supporting by her own labor, not being in anywise assisted therein by the defendant; that since the commencement of this action the plaintiff and the defendant have each consented to the adoption of said child by other persons and such adoption has been completed, and therefore no order should be made herein as to such child.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Mary Olive Young, and the defendant, Andrew Benjamin Young, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all of the obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Claude Marcus of Boise, Idaho. Defendant did not appear, and his default was entered herein pursuant to order of this court after proof of legal service.

Whereupon, testimony was introduced in behalf of Plaintiff together with corroboration thereof.

No testimony was introduced in behalf of Defendant, and the court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and the facts, hereby finds as follows

I

That Plaintiff is now, and has been, for more than six (6) full weeks preceding the filing of this action, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

That Defendant, L. A. Cooper, is not now in the military service of the United State or of any ally in any capacity whatever.

III

That the proof of Plaintiff fully establishes the allegations of her complaint as being true, and Plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IV

That Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody, and control of the minor children of the marriage, subject to the right of Defendant, L. A. Cooper, to visit such children at any reasonable time.

That Thirty Five ($35.00) Dollars per month is a reasonable amount to be allowed for the care and support of each of the minor children of this marriage until such child reaches the age of majority, and that Defendant should be required to pay for such support and care of said children.

NOW THEREFORE, THE COURT DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

I

That Plaintiff, Esther Louise Cooper, is entitled to and she is hereby granted a full and absolute decree of divorce from the Defendant, L. A. Cooper, upon the ground of extreme cruelty, and the bonds of matrimony existing between Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby dissolved, and they are restored to the status of single persons.

II

That Plaintiff, Esther Louise Cooper, is hereby given the care, custody, and control of the minor children of said marriage, namely: Barbara Louise Cooper, a daughter; James Benedict Cooper, a son; and Michael LaVern Cooper, a son; subject to the right of Defendant, L. A. Cooper, to visit these children at any reasonable time.

That Defendant, L. A. Cooper, shall pay to Plaintiff the sum of Thirty-Five ($35.00) Dollars per month for the support and care of each of the above-named minor children during the minority of such child.

III

That Plaintiff is hereby given as her sole and separate property, the furniture, previously owned by the parties to this action, as their community property.

THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on regularly for hearing before the court at Boise, Ada County, State of Idaho, on May 8th, 1948, before the court sitting without a jury. Plaintiff appeared in person and with his attorney and witness. No appearance was made for or on behalf of the defendant, Florence Krasnoff.

It appearing that due and legal service of summons and complaint has been made for the time and in the manner provided by law upon the said defendant: that she has failed to make any appearance whatever herein within the said time: that an affidavit has been filed as to military service and order has heretofore been made herein: that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default and the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly and regularly entered,

Now on motion of the plaintiff the court proceeds to reception of testimony on his behalf and being fully advised, having received testimony, and express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds generally for the plaintiff and against the defendant, and finds the plaintiff entitled to a decree of divorce, and that the plaintiff has made reasonable and adequate arrangements for the support and welfare of the minor children of the parties.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Augustus Krasnoff and the defendant, Florence

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court on the 10th day of April, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Pete Leguineche, and the defendant not appearing in person or by attorney.

And upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the defendant herein, Arlene Rose Nielsen, was duly and regularly served with process, and further, that said defendant has failed to appear and answer, demur, or otherwise plead to the said complaint of the plaintiff, and that the time for so answering, demurring, or otherwise pleading to the said complaint having expired; and it further satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and is not a person in any wise entitled to the benefits of the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940, and thereupon the default of the said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and support of his complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted; and upon consideration of said testimony, the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of treating plaintiff in an extremely cruel and inhuman manner and has inflicted upon plaintiff great and grievous mental suffering, and as a result thereof, plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and set aside;

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of and has continuously resided in the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

The Court further finds that plaintiff and defendant have two (2) minor children, to-wit:

Sharon Tedene Nielsen, a girl, age 7 years;
Roberta Kay Nielsen, a girl, age 3 years;

and that the said children are now in the custody and care of the said defendant;

The Court further finds that plaintiff and defendant have made and entered into a separation agreement providing for the care, custody and control and rights of visitation of the said minor children, in words and figures as follows:

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, said Husband and Wife are now and have been since the 22nd day of June, 1939, Husband and Wife, and irreconcilable disputes and differences have arisen and do now exist between the said Husband and Wife, as a result whereof the said parties have separated and are now living separate and apart, and further as a result whereof the said Husband has filed in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho an action praying for a divorce from the said Wife, and the parties hereto have become firmly and finally convinced that it is impossible for them now or hereafter to again live together as husband and wife; and

WHEREAS, said Husband and Wife have no community property at the present time, having heretofore amicably divided such community property; and

WHEREAS, there have been born as the issue of the said marriage between the parties hereto two minor children, whose names and ages are as follows: Sharon Tedene Nielsen, a girl, age seven years; and Roberta Kay Nielsen, a girl, age three years; and

WHEREAS, the said parties desire at this time to enter into an agreement providing for the care, custody and control and the support and maintenance of the said minor children, and further providing for the respective rights of the parties in and to all property hereinafter acquired by them;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual promises and agreements hereinafter contained, the parties hereto have agreed and do hereby agree as follows:

(1) That the said Wife shall have the care, custody, and control of the said minor children, provided, however, that the said husband shall at all times have the right to visit such minor children and to have such minor children visit him under ordinary and reasonable circumstances, and to more particularly, be without, in any wise limited to the general right of visitation, to visit and to have the said children visit him during vacation months and at times when the said children are not in school.

(4) This agreement is in full settlement of all rights, to property or maintenance that either party may have against the other, and in any action for divorce each of the parties hereto shall pay his or her own attorney's fees and court costs.

THIS AGREEMENT, subject to the approval of the Court, shall be confirmed and made a part of any decree rendered by any Court in any such action.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto havehereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

THEODORE A. NIELSEN
Husband

ARLENE ROSE NIELSEN Wife"

The Court further finds that such Agreement is in all respects proper and equitable and should be confirmed.

Swanstrom, Esquire, his attorney of record in this action, and the defendant appeared not, either in person or by counsel, and from the records and files herein it was made to appear to the satisfaction of the Court that said defendant had been duly and legally served with summons in this action and that said defendant had not appeared herein to plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and it further satisfactorily appearing that the defendant was not known to be engaged in any Armed Services of the United States of America, or in any service conferring immunity from process in civil actions and that default of defendant had been duly ordered and entered in the premises for her failure to appear herein to plead to plaintiff's complaint, said cause was, on motion of counsel, set down for hearing and determination by the Court. Witnesses were sworn and testified in behalf of plaintiff and on the close of the evidence plaintiff moved for Decree of the Court in accordance with the prayer of his complaint, and the Court, having heard and considered the evidence, finds therefrom that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are proven and true and are sustained by Ratcliff and Ada Ratcliff, her parents and natural guardians, and by Carl H. upon plaintiff moved the Court for judgment and decree in accordance with the prayer of her complaint, and the Court having heard and considered the evidence, finds therefrom that on the 9th day of January, 1947, the rites of matrimony between Louise A. Rasmussen, formerly Louise A. Ratcliff, and James Louis Rasmussen, pursuant to license therefor issued by the County Recorder of Humboldt County, State of Nevada, were solemnized in manner according to law at Winnemucca, Nevada: That on said date the said Louise A. D E C R E E.

On this the 28th day of May, 1948, the above entitled action came on for trial before the Court, plaintiff being present in person and by her attorney, Frank D. Ryan, the defendant appearing not, either in person or otherwise, and the Court finds that said defendant has been duly served with summons as required by law and the order for service on file in said action and that due proof of such service has been made and filed herein, and it further appearing that said defendant is not in the Military Service of the United States of America or any other country, and that said defendant is in default for want of answer or other plea, on motion of attorney for plaintiff the default of said defendant is duly entered. Thereupon, the plaintiff introduced her evidence and the Court finds therefrom that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the ground of non-support and failure of defendant to provide plaintiff and the two children of plaintiff and defendant with the common necessaries of life for more than one year prior to filing complaint herein. That there have been two children born to said marriage, they being a son by the name of Lloyd L. Price, born September 24, 1943, and a daughter by the name of Susan E. Price, born December 2, 1945, both said children being in the care, custody and control of plaintiff. The Court further finds that plaintiff is a suitable person to have the care and custody of said children and that the defendant is not a fit and proper person to have their care, and that such care, custody and control of said children should be awarded to plaintiff. The Court further finds that plaintiff owns as her separate property one Ford 1936 model truck, motor number BB 18-840-672, and that the title to such truck was inadvertently taken in the name of defendant, and that such truck should be awarded and decreed to plaintiff.

WHEREFORE IT IS CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant, be and the same are hereby dissolved and each of the parties freed from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof, and each of the parties restored to the status of single persons and each barred and restrained from inheriting from or through the other. That the care, custody and control of said two minor children, Lloyd L. Price and Susan E. Price is hereby given and awarded to plaintiff, with the right to the defendant at reasonable times and hours to visit said children. That said Ford 1936 model truck, motor number BB 18-840-672 is decreed to said plaintiff and title thereto is hereby ordered transferred and a new title to be issued in the name of plaintiff.

Defendant. )

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 3 day of May, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

This matter having come on to be heard at chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, this 6th day of May, 1948, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney, L. F. Racine, Jr., and the defendant appearing by and through his attorney, Henry McQuade, the Court has proceeded to hear the evidence from which it appears and the Court finds:

That all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competence, admissibility and sufficiency; that said defendant, appearing by and through his attorney refused to adduce any evidence in support of his answer; that the parties hereto, each being represented by their attorney of record have entered into an agreement respecting the division of property and the custody of the child of said marriage, and the payment of plaintiff's attorney fees, which agreement has been received in evidence and which the Court finds to be fair and equitable; that under and by virtue of such agreement the parties have agreed that the child of said marriage, Judith Richardson, age four years, shall be under the sole care, control and custody of her mother, the plaintiff in this action, with the right of reasonable visitation on the part of the defendant; that in full and final settlement of the property, both real and personal, acquired by the parties hereto during the marriage, it is agreed under and by virtue of the agreement received in evidence that the plaintiff shall take for her sole and separate property certain household furnishings, to-wit: kitchen set, living room set, bedroom set and a washing machine; that the defendant shall take for his sole and separate property, the refrigerator, kitchen range and such other miscellaneous household furnishings as not herein set forth; that both parties agree to execute and give a Warranty Deed to Mary E. Dalton to the following premises:

> Lot 24 and the South one half of Lot 23 in Block 8, Townsite of Fairview, now Alameda, County of Bannock, State of Idaho, as the same appears on the official plot of said townsite on the record of the office of the Recorder of said County.

As a conclusion of law from the foregoing facts, the Court determines that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty; that there is one child, Judith Richardson, age four, of said marriage; that the plaintiff desires custody of said child and is a proper person to have such custody; that the agreement of the parties as to the division of real and personal property acquired by the parties during said marriage is is fair and equitable; that all and singular the law and the facts are by this Court here understood and fully considered.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage between the plaintiff, Blanche Tarbet Richardson, and the defendant, Sherman Richardson, be dissolved on the ground of extreme cruelty; that the same is hereby dissolved on said ground; that the said parties are, and each of them is, free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony, and all of the obligations thereof; that the plaintiff and defendant, and each of them is restored to the status of single persons; that the plaintiff is a proper person to have control and custody of the child of said marriage, Judith Richardson, age four years, and hereby is given custody and control of said child, with the right of visitation on the part of defendant at all reasonable times and places; that the community property of said parties be and hereby is ordered to be distributed in accordance with the terms of the agreement between the parties as admitted in evidence and as the terms thereof are incorporated in this Decree.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

This matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge of the above entitled court in his chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 18th day of May, 1948.

And it further appearing that the said summons was duly served upon the defendant, and the said summons with due proof of service thereof has been filed in the above entitled court, and is now on file herein; and that the defendant has failed to appear and plead to the said complaint within the time specified in said summons, and is in default therefor.

It further appearing that the Clerk of the above entitled court has duly entered the defendant's default and the plaintiff is entitled to proceed with proof of the allegations of her conplaint, the testimony was heard by the court in support of said complaint, and from said testimony it appears that part of the allegations thereof are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to part of the relief prayed for in said complaint.

That prior to the filing of the complaint herein jurisdiction of the said children having been obtained by the Probate Court of Bannock County, State of Idaho, and the said children having been committed to the care of the Children's Home Finding and Aid Society of Idaho, at Boise, Idaho, that this court does not have jurisdiction to adjudicate the question of custody of the said children at this time.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto are dissolved and set aside, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons.

That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 as a reasonable attorney's fee, and the further sum of $15.90 for costs herein.

That the matter of the custody of the minor children of the parties hereto, so far as it now exists, or shall hereafter come within the jurisdiction of this court, is retained for such other and further order as may be deemed proper at any time while the children are minors.

| Theodore Crumley, Plaintiff, vs. Orma Crumley, Defendant. | FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND DECREE |

This cause came on regularly for trial on the merits on March 9, 1948, Henry Martin appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and Alvin Denman for the defendant; and witnesses having testified in behalf of both parties, and documentary evidence received, said cause was taken under advisement by the court.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The court now finds from the evidence presented as follows:

1. That the plaintiff was for the six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. That since their marraige, the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner as alleged in paragraph 5 of plaintiff's complaint.

3. That the defendant has been guilty of excessive drinking and excessive frequenting of night clubs, bars, and other drinking establishments, and of unseeming conduct in that respect; and that while the plaintiff was living in Idaho Falls and before he moved to Arco, Idaho, in 1944, the plaintiff participated with the defendant in the excessive frequenting of night clubs and other drinking establishments, and by his absence from his home in Idaho Falls, and by such habits, contributed to the defendant's delinquency in this respect.

4. That during the month of June, 1946, the plaintiff without cause or provocation left the defendant and ever since has refused to live or cohabit with her; that the plaintiff drinks intoxicating liquor to excess and has frequently become drunk and intoxicated; that while there was no proof of adultery, nevertheless during the two years last past, the plaintiff has frequently associated with another woman in an intimate manner and in a manner wholly inconsistent with the marital relation; that the plaintiff's acts in this respect have made the defendant's life miserable, a great burden, and destroyed her peace of mind.

5. That the acts of cruelty complained of by the plaintiff in his complaint, and found by the court to be true, were provoked by the plaintiff's absence from his home and his association with another woman.

6. That the plaintiff is an able-bodied man, and by occupation a farmer; that he has been engaged in the business of farming for several years, and is able to pay the defendant the sum of $40.00 per month for her maintenance and support, and the sum of $100.00 per month for the support and maintenance of Karen Rose Crumley, Judith Ann Crumley, and Theodore Crumley, minor children of the parties.

7. That the defendant has no separate property, and is wholly dependent upon her own labor for her support and for the support and maintenance of the parties' minor children.

8. That it was necessary for the defendant to employ an attorney to defend her in this action and to prosecute her cross-complaint, and that she is without funds or property, excepting the sum of $125.00 heretofore allowed by the court, to pay costs and attorney's fees.

~~9. That the parties have acquired certain household goods and furniture, a 1942 Dodge sedan automobile, U.S. Savings bonds of the present value of $975.00, and a New York Life Insurance Policy written on the life of the plaintiff worth $2000.00.~~

~~attorney's fees~~.

9. That there are the following outstanding community obligations: The Paris Co., Salt Lake City, Utah, $149.08; East Side Grocery Co., Idaho Falls, Idaho, $30.01; Lad & Lassie Shop, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $164.25; Dr. John S. Hatch, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $8.00; Dr. Harry L. Willson, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $91.00; Dr. Harry L. Willson, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $81.00; Wally's Grocery, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $~~49.75~~ 49.00.

10. That the defendant reasonably expended the sum of $39.00 to employ John E. Whitsell to investigate the facts for her defense.

11. That the parties have acquired certain household goods and furniture, a 1942 Dodge sedan automobile, U. S. Savings bonds of the present value of $975.00, and a New York Life Insurance Policy written on the life of the plaintiff worth $2000.00.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

As conclusions of law from the foregoing facts, the court concludes as follows:

1. That the defendant is entitled to a decree of divorce from the plaintiff.

2. That the defendant is entitled to custody and control of the minor children of the parties for eleven months out of each year, and the plaintiff is entitled to their custody and control for one month out of each year, and has elected to have such custody during the month of August each year.

3. That the defendant is entitled to $40.00 a month support money for herself and $100.00 a month for the support and maintenance of the parties' minor children.

4. That the plaintiff should be awarded the Dodge automobile, the New York Life Insurance Policy written on plaintiff's life; and the defendant should be awarded the household furniture, furnishings, and fixtures, and all U. S. War saving bonds.

5. That the plaintiff shall pay the following community obligations: The Peris Co., Salt Lake City, Utah, $149.08; East Side Grocery Co., Idaho Falls, Idaho, $30.01; Lad & Lassie Shop, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $164.25; Dr. John S. Hatch, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $8.00; Dr. Harry L. Willson, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $91.00; Dr. Harry L. Willson, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $81.00; Wally's Grocery, Idaho Falls, Idaho, ~~$75.00~~ 49.50.

6. That the plaintiff shall pay a further fee of $75.00 to the defendant's attorney, and all the defendant's costs in excess of the $50.00 heretofore paid by the plaintiff, and the sum of $39.00 paid by the defendant to John E. Whitsell.

DECREE

It is therefore ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant are hereby dissolved absolutely.

That until the further order of the court, the defendant is hereby awarded the custody and control of Karen Rose, Judith Ann, and Theodore Crumley each and every month of the year except the month of August, and that the plaintiff is awarded custody of said minor children during the month of August of each year.

The plaintiff shall pay the following community obligations: The Peris Co., Salt Lake City, Utah, $149.08; East Side Grocery Co., Idaho Falls, Idaho, $30.01; Lad & Lassie Shop, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $164.25; Dr. John S. Hatch, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $8.00; Dr. Harry L. Willson, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $91.00; Dr. Harry L. Willson, Idaho Falls, Idaho, $81.00; Wally's Grocery, Idaho Falls, Idaho, ~~$75.00~~ 49.50

The plaintiff is hereby awarded the 1942 Dodge automobile and the New York Life Insurance Policy written on the plaintiff's life; and the defendant is awarded the household furniture, furnishings, and fixtures, and all U. S. War bonds.

The plaintiff shall pay to the defendant forthwith the sum of $39.00 to reimburse the defendant for the money paid by her to

John E. Whitsell, ~~and her costs herein taxed at $ ——~~, and the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant as alimony, the sum of $40.00 a month each and every month, commencing April 1, 1948, and shall also pay to the defendant the sum of $100.00 a month, each and every month, excepting the month of August, and commencing April 1, 1948, for the support and maintenance of the parties' minor children. All of said payments shall continue until further order of the court.

Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled court, in the court room thereof, in the Court House at Burley, County of Cassia, State of Idaho, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein on the 20th day of May, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Lowe, one of her attorneys. The defendant failed to appear either in person or by counsel. Thereupon it appeared to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had executed, acknowledged and caused to be filed in said court an cause an instrument in writing, wherein and whereby he did acknowledge and admit the service upon him of a copy of the summons in said action, together with a copy of the complaint thereto attached, at Burley, County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the third day of February, 1948, did waive his time to appear and plead to said cause and consent to the entry of a decree in said action; that the time for the appearance and pleading of the defendant to the complaint of the plaintiff has expired, and that no appearance, answer or demurrer has been made or filed herein by or on behalf of the defendant. That an affidavit in compliance with the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, has been filed herein in which it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the defendand is not now, and for more than six months last past has not been in the military service of the United States or its allies.

Thereupon, on motion of Kales E. Lowe, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff was by the court ordered entered. Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined, and the plaintiff rested.

The court, being fully advised in the premises, having duly considered the matter, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant, and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, orders that the plaintiff have judgment and decree of this court as prayed in her complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Dorothy Craig, and the defendant Jay H. This matter came on duly and regularly for trial before the above entitled court in open court at Boise, Ada County, Idaho, on the 7th day of May, 1948, Anderson and Thomas appearing as attorneys for defendant and the plaintiff not appearing in person, by attorney or otherwise;

Whereupon, the defendant by her counsel moved the court to enter judgment of non-suit in said action on the ground that the plaintiff failed to appear on the trial which ground was specified in said motion and submitted to the court for consideration and decision, and the court having considered the same did grant said motion for judgment of non-suit;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by this court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the defendant and the plaintiff be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and that the said defendant, Mary Ellen Matchett, be, and she hereby is, forever divorced from the said plaintiff, Riley L. DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 5th day of May, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person nor by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Elmer G. After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first cause of action of said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilfull neglect of the plaintiff and upon the second cause of action of said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved;

And the Court further finds that upon the 12th day of April, 1948, the plaintiff and the defendant made and entered into one certain agreement in words and figures as follows:

This property settlement agreement made and entered into this 12th day of April, 1948, by and between Ruth M. Drake of Mountain Home, Elmore County, Idaho, hereinafter referred to as the wife, and Elmer G. Drake of Mountain Home, Elmore County, Idaho, hereinafter referred to as the husband, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto are now and have been husband and wife, and

WHEREAS, disputes and differences have arisen and do now exist between said husband and wife, as a result whereof the wife has filed an action for divorce in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Elmore, and

WHEREAS, the parties have heretofore separated and have become finally and fully convinced that it is impossible for them now or hereafter to live together as husband and wife, and

WHEREAS, the parties desire by mutual agreement to settle between themselves the rights of said parties as to the custody of the children of the parties hereto and their respective rights and duties in regard to the support of the said children and the wife.

NOW, THEREFORE, in settlement and adjustment of the rights and duties of each of the parties hereto and upon the conditions hereinafter set forth, the parties do hereby make and enter into the following agreement with each other, to-wit:

It is mutually agreed that the parties hereto have heretofore divided all of their community property, the said husband taking one certain 1940 Plymouth Coupe and the said wife taking all the remainder of the community property of the parties consisting of household furniture, fixtures, equipment and money. Said division of the community property was made for the purpose of the support of the said wife and children of the parties hereto and that hereafter neither of the parties hereto shall have any claims upon the other for any amounts for care or support of each other and the said wife shall make no further demands upon the said husband for further support for the children of the parties hereto. The parties hereto further agree that the said wife shall receive and use for the best interests of the said children in their care and education, any sums of money hereinafter provided by the said husband for the better support, care or education of said children. It is further agreed that the personal property received by each of the parties hereto in the division hereinabove referred to shall be the sole and separate property of each. It is further understood and agreed that any property real or personal hereinafter acquired by either of the parties to this agreement shall be the sole and separate property of the party acquiring the same.

The said wife shall have the custody, care and control of the children of the parties hereto, to-wit: Sheila Anne, age 12 years, and Beverly Jean, age 4 years. That the said husband shall have the right to visit said children at any proper time and place and shall have the right to have said children visit with him for such periods of time and at such times and places as may be agreed upon between the parties. It being understood that such visitations shall be made only under circumstances and conditions which are proper for said children and at such times as will not interfere with the education or health of said children.

The parties hereto further mutually agree to accept this agreement and the provisions thereof in full settlement and compromise of their respective rights and obligations created by or arising out of said marital status and that in event a decree of divorce is obtained by either of the parties hereto from the other, this agreement, subject to the approval of the Court, shall be confirmed and made a part of any decree of divorce rendered by any Court in any action for divorce between said parties.

case one is granted by the Court. That neither of the parties shall molest or annoy the other or compel or endeavor to compel the other to cohabit or dwell with him or her by any legal or other proceedings, pending the divorce action.

II.

That the party of the first part admits and concedes that the party of the second part is a fit and proper person to have the custody of the minor child of the parties hereto, and she is presently able to support said child without assistance from the party of the first part; and in the event the divorce action now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho in and for the County of Jerome is to be the final judgment, the party of the first part will request the Court that the exclusive custody and control of said minor child be awarded to the party of the second part, without any right given to the party of the first part to visit or otherwise have any present rights whatsoever with respect to the care, control management or upbringing of said child. That the party of the second part may remove said child to any place within or without this State subject only to the jurisdiction reserved to said Court or any other Court of competent jurisdiction to prescribe orders deemed necessary for the best interests of said child.

III.

That the party of the second part shall have the exclusive custody and control of said minor child, and will care for and attend to the upbringing and education of said child, and the party of the second part makes no claim or demand of any kind against the party of the first part for any expense or payment in connection with her car, custody, upbringing and education of said child. IV.

That during the marriage of the parties hereto, certain community property and community property rights have been acquired by the parties, the exact nature and extent of which is between the parties hereto in dispute and likewise the parties hereto have contracted certain community obligations. As a matter of compromise of said disputed property rights and obligations, the parties have agreed as follows:

(a) That the party of the first part will execute and deliver to L. B. Wigmore of Havre, Montana, a promissory note in the principal amount of Two Thousand Three Hundred Thirty-four and 03/100 Dollars ($2,334.03), bearing interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) and secured by a second mortgage on the following described real property, situate in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, to-wit:

Lots Four (4), Five (5), Six (6) and Lots Fifteen (15) and Sixteen (16) in Block Eighty-Three (83) of Buhl Townsite, as the same are shown on the final plat of said Buhl Townsite on file in the office of the County Recorder, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho.

In this connection, it is understood that the said L. B. Wigmore is the father of the party of the second part, and that the principal amount of said note includes not only debts owing by the community of the party hereto to the said L. B. Wigmore, but also includes sums admittedly owing by the party of the first part to the party of the second part, and a compromise of the disputed claims of the parties hereto; and that said L. B. Wigmore, in receiving said note and mortgage and sums accruing therefrom will act as trustee for the party of the second part to the extent that said principal amount represents her own claims against the party of the first part.

(b) That the party of the second part will execute and deliver to the party of the first part a Quitclaim Deed to the premises hereinabove described in sub-paragraph (a).

(c) That both parties hereto will execute and deliver to LeGrand B. Wigmore, a Quitclaim Deed for the Following described property in Twin Falls County, Idaho:

Lots Nine (9) and Ten (10), in Block One Hundred Twelve (112) of Buhl Townsite, according to the final and amended plat thereof in file in the office of the County Recorder of Twin Falls County, Idaho.

(d) That each of the parties hereto will retain, as his own separate property free and clear of all claims and demands of the other such property of the community as he now has in his own possession.

(e) That the party of the first part shall pay all debts and obligations of marital community up to the date hereof, including all income taxes, if any, accruing against the party of the second part for her share of the community income, including the taxable year of 1948, and neither party shall, after the date hereof, be liable for any debts, obligations or liabilities incurred by the other, or for any taxes on income earned or received by the other after this date.

V.

It is further mutually agreed that if, after the execution of this agreement, the bonds of matrimony between the parties hereto shall be severed and this property settlement agreement is approved and confirmed by the Court in said divorce action, the division of the property herein agreed upon shall be in full settlement of, and in lieu of, any and all claims and demands of either party hereto, for property alimony, suit money, attorneys' fees, support money, or moneys of any kind or character whatsoever.

VI.

That all community and separate property rights of the parties hereto are fully and completely settled, adjusted and ended, and all property hereinafter acquired by either party hereto shall as between the parties hereto be deemed to be the separate property of the party so acquiring the same, and each party hereto does hereby release and discharge the other fully and completely as to all claims and deeds of any kind or character whatsoever in any way arising from, or out of, or by virtue of the marital relations or marital community of the parties hereto, excepting only claims arising under this agreement.

VII.

It is further understood and agreed that in the event the divorce action hereinabove referred to be prosecuted to final judgment, the Court will be requested to approve this property settlement agreement and if such approval is granted the Court will be requested to incorporate this agreement in any final decree of divorce that may be entered in said action.

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in chambers at Weiser, Washington County, Idaho, and within the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein, and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint, and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him, and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of extreme mental cruelty; and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the Court on this seventh day of May, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person nor by attorney; and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due service of summons and complaint in said action had been made upon the defendant, and the defendant having entered his appearance and refusal to plead further, and waiving the statutory time for hearing, and consenting that default might be entered against him; and default having been duly entered by the Clerk of the above entitled Court according to law.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 21st day of May, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney, and it being shown to the Court, by Sheriff's return on summons herein, that personal service of the summons and complaint in this action was had on the defendant in Twin Falls County on the 24th day of April, 1948; it appearing further that the defendant has not made any apparance in this action since the date of said service and that his default for failure to appear and plead within the time allowed by law has been entered by the Clerk of our Court, now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and it hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and examined, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to her residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint as regards the residence of the plaintiff, the marriage of the parties, that there are no children born of said marriage and no community property, and that the defend- has treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty by the infliction of grevious mental suffering upon her, are all true.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff, Mildred Loughlin, and the defendant, Melvin Loughlin, be and they hereby are dissolved, and that said parties be, and each of them is, freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony; that the plaintiff, in accordance her request, be and she hereby is restored to her maiden name of Mildred Taupin.

Judgment rendered this 21st day of May, 1948.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the _____day of June 1948, the plaintiff being represented by his Attorney, J. M. Lampert.

The time for answer having expired and no answer or other plea having been made to the complaint herein, and the records showing due service of process, and affidavit being on file showing the defendant is not now and for more than six months last past, has not been in the Military Service of the United States of America, as defined by section 101 (1) of the Soldier's and Sailor's Relief Act of October 17, 1940 or any other amendment thereof, and the default of the defendant having been entered, evidence was presented by the plaintiff to the Court which sustained the allegations of the complaint; and there having been corroboration presented as to plaintiff's residence in the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks prior to the filing of the complaint herein, and the parties hereto did enter into a separation agreement on the 26th day of January 1946--copy of which was attached to the complaint on file herein, and which said agreement provided among other things:

> "In the event that any final judgment by Court of competent jurisdiction shall be entered, separating or divorcing the parties hereto, this agreement shall nevertheless thereafter continue in full force and effect, and the parties hereto agree that in the event of such judgment being rendered, it shall contain no provision for alimony or for the support and maintenance of the wife except that this agreement shall be incorporated in any such judgment (but by reference only) if the Court so permits"

And the Court hereby makes said agreement a part of this decree by reference thereto. The Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff, and the allegations of the complaint are sustained by the evidence; and that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the filing of this action.

#21422

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 12th day of June, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to his residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and toward the plaintiff as alleged in the complaint, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant; and

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

This cause came on regularly for trial in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada, on the 19th day of June, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his counsel, Frank Langley, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the defendant, and the defendant not appearing in person; whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in his own behalf, and Howard B. Woods being duly sworn, testified and corroborated plaintiff's testimony with regard to his residence in the the State of Idaho, and thereupon the plaintiff rested; and no proof whatever having been submitted for or in behalf of the defendant, this case was thereupon submitted to the court for decision upon the evidence submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows: That said defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the summons issued out of the above entitled court in the within cause, attached to which was a true copy of plaintiff's complain filed herein; that the defendant did not appear and plead to said complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that defendant's default in the premises was duly and regularly entered against her after her time to appear and plead had expired; that the defendant was not in the Military Service or Armed Forces of the United States of America at any time; that this court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of the parties hereto both plaintiff and defendant; that plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Boise, Idaho, on March 20, 1943, and are the parents of two children, namely, Nikki Sue Woods, a daughter, born November 12, 1943, and Randall Lee Woods, a son, born June 14, 1947, and have acquired and now own certain household furniture, furnishings and equipment now in use by and in the possession of defendant, and are now both employed by others for wages, and that for more than six months immediately prior to the commencement of this action, as well as at the present time, both plaintiff and defendant were and now are actual, bona fide residents of the State of Idaho .

The court further finds that all of the allegations in plaintiff's complaint on file herein are true and correct and that said defendant is guilty of having treated plaintiff in an extremely cruel and inhuman manner and that said plaintiff is entitled to be divorced from the said defendant; that plaintiff and defendant have mutually agreed that, in the event a decree of divorce be entered herein, such decree may provide that the custody of both of the children hereinbefore mentioned be given to the defendant and that the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant for the care and support of each of said children the sum of ten dollars per week, payable weekly, until said children become of legal age, and that plaintiff shall have the right to visit said children at reasonable times, and that said household furniture, furnishings and equipment shall be the property of the defendant, and that neither plaintiff nor defendant shall make any further or other claim of any kind against the other, and each party discharged and released the other from any and all obligations to support or maintenance. The court finds that said agreement has heretofore been filed in the above entitled action, and the same is in all respects fair and equitable and should be and is hereby approved.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND

DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Donald R. Woods, and the defendant, Shirley Maria Woods, be and are hereby dissolved and set aside and held for naught, and plaintiff and defendant are hereby forever divorced and restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the custody, control and care of Nikki Sue Woods, a daughter, born November 12, 1943, and Randall Lee Woods, a son born June 14, 1947, minor children of plaintiff and defendant, be and the same is hereby given to the defendant, Shirley Maria Woods, with whom they are now living, and the plaintiff, Donald R. Woods, is hereby ordered to pay to said defendant for the care and support of each of said children the sum of ten dollars per week, payable weekly, until said children become of legal age; and it is further ordered that the plaintiff may visit said children at reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That said defendant shall receive and have as her sole and separate property all of the hereinbefore mentioned household furniture, furnishings and equipment including such personal effects, cash accumulations and wages due her as she may have; and that said plaintiff shall receive and have as his sole and separate property such personal effects, cash accumulations and wages due him as he may have.

IT IS FURTHER HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That this decree is in full settlement and adjustment of all rights and claims of either party of whatever nature as to any matter involved in this action.

#21463

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 26th day of June, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to answer and appear against plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has no been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant is now confined in the State Penitentiary for the conviction of a felony, that his sentence has not terminated, nor has he been granted a pardon or parol as alleged in the plaintiff's complaint, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court on the 26th day of June, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Pete Leguineche, and the defendant not appearing in person or by attorney:

And upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the defendant herein, Clifford Holm, was duly served with the process herein, and further that the defendant has appeared and filed in the said action his acknowledgment of service, appearance, and authorization of default, and his refusal to plead to the complaint of plaintiff, on file herein, and that the said defendant did authorize the entry of default against him for his failure to so plead, and the time for so answering or otherwise pleading to said complaint, having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court from an affidavit filed by the plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of the defendant, Clifford

Holm, having been duly entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of said plaintiff and in support of her complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted; and upon consideration of said testimony, the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of treating plaintiff in an extremely cruel and inhuman manner and has inflicted upon plaintiff great and grievous mental suffering and as a result thereof, plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and set aside;

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of and has continuously resided in the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, on this 26th day of June, 1948, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by this Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be forever dissolved and set aside and that plaintiff be forever divorced from said defendant.
